Wedding bells are ringing for two of our members! George Pappas and Cathryn LaChapelle are tying the knot in June and we want our meeting to be part of their celebration. Jack Roth designed our comic lineup look at love and marriage. Share your best wishes and some hearty laughs with the "soon to be weds" at our June 1 meeting.

For more celebratory fun, reserve your place now for the New York Founding Tent's Annual Banquet. Special guest honoree is renowned comedian and impressionist, Frank Gorshin, now appearing on Broadway in "Say Goodnight Gracie."

When: Friday, June 20th, 2003
Where: The Players Club, 16 Gramercy Park South, New York City
Time: 7:00pm Cocktails; 8:00 Buffet Dinner

We look forward to seeing everyone in June. One final note: while we appreciate the snacks, we seem to be having quite a surplus. We ask that you continue to BYOB, but for June let's just have members R-Z bring goodies.

DIRECTIONS TO THE SABINIS: Merritt Pkway to exit 35, High Ridge Rd. At bottom of ramp turn right. At 7th light (approx. 1.3 mile) turn right onto Ridge Park Ave (church on corner). Bear right onto Wood Ridge Drive. #151 is on the corner of Wood Ridge and Rosano.

It's Time To Play Ball And Ante Up!

The time has come, the Treasurer said, to speak of many things. Of triple plays and sunny days and paying for your tix! We will distribute the tickets for the July 19th Bridgeport Bluefish game at the June meeting. Tickets cost $11 each and all 20 have been spoken for. However, we had to order so far in advance that we know some of you may need to adjust your requests. If you can't get to the meeting be sure and get your check to Steve Rugh ASAP or your tickets may go up for grabs after the meeting.

ELECTION FRAUD

Due to some incredible miscarriage of democracy, the current slate of officers is running unopposed. That means unless there is some dramatic turn of events, they will be re-elected by a show of hands at the June meeting. There's still time to prevent this from happening. Call Carol or Lou if you would like to exercise your right to create anarchy.

MEMBERSHIP RENEWALS BEGIN

In addition to collecting for Bridgeport Bluefish, we will begin collecting next year's dues. Despite an increase in postage rates and an increase in the subscription cost of ITJs, we'd like to hold the line at $15 for our annual membership. This will entitle you (and your entire family) to all of our monthly newsletters and a year's subscription to the IntraTent Journal. We are, however, dropping the $10 membership option, which is for members of more than one tent who just want to receive the monthly mailings with no ITJ.

Two very strange sightings this month. One was in the book, Human Croquet by Kate Atkinson. On page 67, the main character's somewhat absent-minded father wanders into a room looking for his wife. "Have you seen Debs anywhere?" He asks, scratching his head like Stan Laurel."

The other is an audio appearance. On a BBC program I'm Sorry I Haven't a Clue, the panelists were asked to come up with ways the entertainment industry could appeal more to hairdressers. One answer was "L'Oreal and Hardy."

I warned you they were strange.

Only one interesting item this month.

It's the Internet equivalent of the Bargain Bin. Plenty of audio and movies to choose from. When I checked last, Flying Deuces & Utopia are two L&H offerings currently on file.
